Dear Mrs. Schutte,

Thank you for your letter of July 19 telling me about the Blue Grass Homecoming parade this Sunday afternoon. I'm sorry, but we won't be able to have the bookmobile in it this year, either. Previous plans make it impossible for either Joe or I to drive, and we're the only ones who do.

I shall be happy to speak to your PTA on Tuesday evening, Sept. 7 and show our library film - it is evening, isn't it, for I have another film showing booked for that afternoon. Will you please let me know the hour.

I escaped the earlier part of the heat wave since I was in Minnesota for convention and vacation - lovely and cool! ~~- so I've been taking this without complaint!~~

Sincerely,

Elizabeth B. Hage
